How much does surrogacy cost in Mumbai to have a baby?

Surrogacy cost in Mumbai, like any other location, may vary depending on various factors such as medical facilities, surrogate compensation, legal fees, and other related expenses. On average, the total cost of surrogacy in Mumbai can range from around $20,000 to $40,000 or more, based on the couple's medical reports. However, couples need to visit a surrogacy agency in Mumbai to get accurate and up-to-date cost estimates, as prices may vary depending on individual circumstances and requirements.

What is the role of the Best Surrogacy Hospital in Mumbai?

1. Medical Assessment: The best surrogacy hospital in Mumbai provides thorough medical examinations for both intended parents and surrogate mothers to ensure that they are physically and mentally fit for the process. They also provide medical assistance during the trip, including fertility treatment, prenatal care, and childbirth.

2. Legal Guidelines: Surrogacy involves complex legal aspects. Hospital representatives provide proper guidance and assistance in navigating the legal aspects of surrogacy, including drafting contracts and ensuring that all parties involved in the process understand their rights and responsibilities.

3. Matching Services: Go IVF surrogacy agency in Mumbai helps the intended parents with a suitable surrogate mother. This includes thorough vetting of both parties to ensure compatibility and suitability for the arrangement.

4. Emotional support: Surrogacy is an emotionally demanding procedure for all parties involved in the process. The hospital provides counselling and support services to help intended parents, surrogate mothers, and their families cope with the emotional aspects of the process.

If a couple wishes to have surrogacy in Delhi or Pune, how much do they have to pay?

a) Egg surrogacy: It is a procedure in which a fertility doctor combines the harvested eggs and sperm of the intended parents to facilitate fertilization. Once the embryo is formed, the embryologist places it in the womb of the surrogate mother. The estimated surrogacy cost in Delhi for this procedure is between INR 12 to INR 15 lakhs; while the same procedure will cost between INR 14 to INR 17 lakhs in Pune.

b) Donated Egg Surrogacy: In this procedure, a fertility doctor takes donated eggs from an egg donor and fertilizes them with the intended father's sperm or a sperm donor to aid fertilization. After fertilization, the embryologist places the created embryo into the womb of the surrogate mother. This procedure allows at least one parent to have a genetic relationship with the child born through surrogacy. The estimated surrogacy cost in Pune for this procedure is between INR 18 lakhs to INR 22 lakhs, whereas people get this procedure at reasonable prices in Delhi, which range from INR 14 to INR 16 lakhs.

How much does a surrogate mother cost in Mumbai?

The surrogate mother cost in Mumbai is very reasonable at the Go IVF Surrogacy clinic. The price of a surrogate depends mainly on her experience, qualifications, state of the surrogate's uterus, number of births, etc. Surrogacy is an advanced fertility procedure in which fertility specialists perform IVF and later transfer the created embryo into the surrogate mother's womb for a successful conception. The surrogate mother will carry the baby in her womb until full term, and she cannot make any travel plans for those nine months. Once the baby is born, the surrogate mother hands the baby over to the intended parents and leaves the site.
